

As a strong proponent of individual freedom, I find it appauling that lobbyists are trying to stifle the freedom of satellite radio to be competitive in the local markets (i.e. local traffic and weather).